

Guideline 2.1 - Information Needed

We have started the review of your app, but we are not able to continue because we need additional information about your app.

Next Steps

To help us proceed with the review of your app, please provide detailed information to the following questions. The more information you can provide upfront, the sooner we can complete your review.

- What kind of travel-related accommodations do “planners” offer to earn money?

Once you reply to this message in Resolution Center with the requested information, we can proceed with your review.
